To whom it may concern,

Intel Corporation has announced the discontinuance of the following key part that is used in the affected models:

Intel, chipset, Intel QM87 PCH

Please determine your remaining demand of ASTUT-152-RE1S series and inform us of the final quantities before December 31st, 2020. So that we can secure the EOL key part from the supplier before their last shipment date. After December 31st, 2020, IBASE may still be able to produce and supply affected models before May 31th, 2021, but only up to the quantities as determined by the EOL Components held in stock thereafter.

We also suggest IPPC1505-RE series which comes with the newer processor for replacements:
